

SWEET JONNY

"Formed through a general distaste and disillusionment with the current music scene, Sweet Jonny hail from a do-nothing town in the middle of nowhere. A gutter garage rock band - fervent, desperate and violently energetic. A torrent of noise, sweat and more often than not, our own blood. Think the Pixies on speed or the Cramps if they were denied it."

PRESS/REVIEWS

"It's not just the sound, not just the songs. I think it is the whole package." Rock Regeneration.co.uk

"You know... the stuff we used to avidly tune into John Peel to get our regular shot of." Abi Rhodes Zigzag Wanderings

"Keep an eye for these guys for certain, they'll be hitting the music scene hard with 'JSA'. "- New Reviews.

"Influenced by The Pixies, The Damned, David Bowie and The Buzzcocks, Brighton grunge punks Sweet Jonny play a blend of blues, punk and southern rock that's just right to get a crowd rioting and skanking along. You can almost smell the sweat, and feel the spit on your face." - Sound And Motion Magazine.

"If you like filthy rock, you'll like this" - GIGle Pics.

"It's really fucking good" - REES, John Whitcher

"If you're painfully bored, fed up with your repetitive job and outraged by the widespread ignorant nihilism, don't worry - so are Sweet Jonny, which makes them a must-see band."- Punk Prospect Review (9/10 Rating.)

In the past year we have supported the likes of God Damn, Dingus Khan and Bam Margera's Fuckface Unstoppable. Played the main stage of Bognor Rox Festival and the O2 Academy Islington.
